The Globe: A Virtual Tour

Shakespeare's Globe is a realistic true-to-history reconstruction of the Globe Theatre, an Elizabethan playhouse first built in 1599 for which William Shakespeare wrote his plays. It is located on the south bank of the River Thames, in the London Borough of Southwark and hosts theatrical productions.

You can explore the theatre virtually here.

Then either by researching online platforms like YouTube, or more traditional media, or even a piece of live theatre you may have watched or studied, use either a screenshot, photo or a copy and pasted monologue of your favourite Shakespearean character and moment in a play. Discuss why you chose this particular piece and what the piece means to you. This should be no more than one side of A4.
