

A Level English Language Activity 1

Rob Drummond – You're All Talk: Why We Are What We Speak

The above book is a fantastic introduction to some of the topics we will cover on the course. Whilst reading you should consider:

- How social groups and geographical locations affect language used. This is an opportunity to explore how linguistic styles differ between different groups of people and where they happen to live