World Photography Organisation is a leading global platform dedicated to the development and advancement of photographic culture. Its programming and competition initiatives provide valuable opportunities for artists working in photography and help broaden the conversation around their work.

The Sony World Photography Awards is World Photography Organisation's principal programme. Established in 2007, it is one of the world's biggest and most prestigious photography competitions, celebrating the work of leading and emerging practitioners and attracting tens of thousands of visitors annually to its exhibitions worldwide.

As part of A Level Photography, we encourage students to actively seek out photographic competitions – Sony is a world leader in this and have a Youth category. We would like you to begin researching this in preparation for their next submission.

Look at some of the Youth winners from their gallery. Which ones do you like? Why? Discuss the genre and composition of the image.

Extension: create an idea board on what you might want to submit, you can gather any images that inspire you. Tip – use Pinterest as they have a large data base of photographers.
