A Level Politics Activity 3

Laura Kuenssberg - State of Chaos

Is the political system broken? In this fascinating documentary, Laura Kuenssberg asks if Britain's political system has been stretched to breaking point as she explores the consequences and reasons behind some of the most dramatic political events seen in a generation. From the Brexit referendum, resignations, elections, prorogation and the pandemic, Laura was the BBC's political editor and held a ringside seat as these events unfolded. She'll investigate why this period became so toxic, both in public and behind the scenes, and add her own reflections on the period.

In this task we're asking you to draw a timeline of the key events in the years since Boris Johnson gained power.
