

A Level Sociology Activity 3

Keep up to date!

Sociology requires you to use real life contemporary examples in your writing. Engage with the reading, watching and listening list below to stretch your knowledge beyond the specification.

What can you be doing between now and September to prepare you for A-Level Sociology?
Reading 	Keep up to date with the news - it is essential that you bring in contemporary examples into your essays: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>➤ The BBC</li> <li>➤ The Guardian</li> <li>➤ The Telegraph</li> <li>➤ The Independent</li> <li>➤ Chavs: The demonisation of the working class (Owen Jones).</li> <li>➤ Why I am no longer talking to white people about race (Reni Eddo-Lodge)</li> </ul>
Watching 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>➤ Stacey Dooley Investigates</li> <li>➤ 'Poor Kids' - BBC (2011)</li> <li>➤ 'A class divided' – Frontline YouTube</li> <li>➤ Barbie (2023) film.</li> <li>➤ Suffragette (2015) film.</li> <li>➤ Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie – Ted Talk</li> </ul>
Listening 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>➤ The Sociology Show Podcast.</li> <li>➤ BBC Radio 4 Thinking Allowed Podcast.</li> <li>➤ All Sociology Podcast.</li> <li>➤ BBC Woman's Hour Podcast.</li> </ul>

Write your reflections on something that you found particularly interesting and informative.